

Purpose of the Technical Advisory Group

The Department is creating a technical advisory group to provide advice and assistance with analyzing and modeling taxes not currently part of Washington's tax structure such as:

- Personal Income Taxes,
- Corporate Income Taxes, or
- Value-Added Taxes.

Economists and individuals with expertise in taxes are helping the Department to brainstorm data sources, develop key assumptions and approaches to take in developing the above tax models.